

ANZACA 2010

2-3 December
Hobart, Tasmania

“Anatomy Educators: Making Anatomy Necessary and Attractive to Modern Audiences”

A Clinical Anatomy Conference for Educators, Clinicians and Researchers

Organised by the School of Medicine, University of Tasmania

Speaker highlights:

Professor Stephen Carmichael (USA)

“The Past, Present and Future of Clinical Anatomy”

Professor Beat Riederer (Switzerland)

“Plastination in Modern Anatomy Teaching”

Dr Chris Lawrence (AUS)

“I wish I had learned more anatomy in medical school: Confessions of a late blooming morbid anatomist”

Pre-conference Workshops (1st Dec):

Anatomy Workshop 1 - Dissection

Anatomy Workshop 2 -

Hands-on Human Anatomy

Creating Anatomy Crosswords

Abstract deadline (October 1st)

For more information please visit:

www.healthsci.utas.edu.au/conferences/ANZACA/index.html

