

Appendix D

Case Template

Case Title

Developed by:

Date:

Learning Objectives

Patient/scenario description (may include any relevant information such as presenting symptoms, examination of the patient, etc.)

1.

Case Details

Case setting: additional factors

Scenario:

Additional Information

May include evidence where appropriate: ECG, pathology, x-ray

Further history (as relevant)

Learning Tasks

List specific questions to be covered (should relate to the learning outcomes). The list may lead on to a second section of Additional Information and further Learning Tasks as the case develops.

Resources

Books:

Journals:

Websites:

A/V:

Newspapers/magazines:

Office Use Only

Case Title:

Case ID Number*

*Year/Block Code/Week

An example of a case ID number where a case was delivered in Year 1, Block 1, Week 3 would read: 1/B1/3

Block Codes for years 1 and 2:

Block 1 = B1

Block 2: B2

Block 3 = B3

Block 4: B4

Prerequisites:

These indicate the level of relevant knowledge that the students should have achieved before approaching this case.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Keywords

These will be used to cross reference his case so that it can be included in a database of information relevant to all cases delivered at the TSoM

Case Index Number:

(assigned by database)

Source: Hobart

Learning Objectives	Themes
	HHD ¹	CC ²	CHD ³	PPD ⁴	INT ⁵

Quiz Questions for Case Preparation

¹ Theme 1: Human Health and Disease

² Theme 2: Collaboration and Communication

³ Theme 3: Community Health and Disease

⁴ Theme 4: Personal and Professional Development

⁵ Theme 5: Integration

Delivery Strategies

May include small group, online, role plat, etc. (Circle or bold relevant descriptions.)

Small group (<11 people)	Medium group (<21 people)
Large group (>21 people)	Self-paced
Text based	Facilitator led
CD Rom-based	Role-play
Classroom based	Clinical/rounds based
Online/WebCT based	Fully Disclosed
Simulated patient	Partly Disclosed
Classroom/Tutorial presentation
Other (please specify)

Tutor/facilitator's notes [password protected]

Information that may help staff to deliver this case, e.g. how to direct students to relevant materials, where to find answers to exercises, etc.