

Sydney nursing students perform well in semester 1.

The University has offered a 2 year fast track Bachelor of Nursing program in Darlinghurst since 2006 and Rozelle since 2008. The student results for 1st semester demonstrate that the strategies employed by the School, student services and CALT have positively effected the outcome for these students.

